Registration Deadline February 22

Join teachers from throughout the region for a workshop at the Upper Valley Music Center focused on elementary choral music education.

In this workshop participants will share tried-and-true warm-up exercises, repertoire, and activities with the group. Everyone will leave with:

- New warm-ups, skill-building activities, and repertoire that are ready to use;
- An expanded & developed local professional network;
- A reconnection to the joy, play, and beauty of their work;
- A certificate for three professional development hours.

The workshop will be facilitated by Patricia Norton, founder and director of the Juneberry Community Chorus at UVMC (www.juneberrymusic.com/faculty.html).
